

THE SOUTHERN AFRICAN ASSOCIATION FOR ENERGY EFFICIENCY

Ian Ernest Lane Hall of Fame

The “SAEE Hall of Fame” was established in August 2009, by the SAEE Board and the Hall of Fame committee. On 12 November 2009, the late Dr. Ian Ernest Lane was presented the first SAEE Hall of Fame honour. The Board of the SAEE has confirmed that the Hall of Fame will be named after Dr. Lane.

This high honour will be bestowed on an individual whose service, dedication, commitment and selfless hours were given to the energy industry, particularly in the fields of Engineering, Built Environment, Environmental Studies and Energy Efficiency.

By being inducted into the Hall of Fame an individual's achievements are highlighted and it places the winner in an elite class. The SAEE Hall of Fame includes only the highest calibre individuals who are to be remembered for their achievements.

SAEE Hall of Fame Minimum Requirements:

- A nominee must have completed a minimum of 15 years service in the specific field.
- A Hall of Fame nominee does not have to be retired to be nominated or elected; however, all nominees must be at least 35 years of age. The age requirement will not apply to any nominee who is deceased.
- Each person may nominate up to one member for consideration into the SAEE Hall of Fame, and no self nominations will be allowed.
- All nominations must be made by SAEE members. However, the person nominated does not have to be a member of the Association.

Nomination process:

- This form must be filled out completely and returned to the SAEE Administration Office by 30 September 2011. The nomination forms will only be considered in the year of the nomination.
- Please include a 200 words motivation letter, as well as a comprehensive CV of the nominated individual. A recent head shot photo must also accompany the nomination.
- All nominations received will be reviewed by the SAEE Hall of Fame committee.
- Only one nomination will be allowed per organization.
- The newly elected Hall of Fame member will be announced and inducted at the annual SAEE banquet on 16 November 2011 at Emperors Palace.

